MOLOKAI'S MOUNT COMING

Inter-Island Company Arranges for the Floral Parade Excursions.

SIX BANDS IN THE PARADE

Preparations for Annual Fete Are Going Ahead Splendidly in Honolulu United.

Miss Mary Kano who is to represent Molokai as the Princess for that little island in the Floral Parade, will arrive here next week. On Sunday two magnificent horses, the finest on the island, will arrive from Molokai. George P. Cooke, who has displayed much enthusiasm over the Molokai princess entry, has provided the mounts and will see that the rider is provided with a handsome outfit for the parade. Molokai, for a little island has done herself proud. Kana has responded and provided a fine rider and a beautiful horse. Hawaii's business men have taken a big interest in the Princess from that island and the announcement of her name will be made presently. Oahu, as already known, will be represented by Miss Wattle Holt, one of the best equestriennes in this city.

Inter-Island Excursions.

Arrangements are being made by the Inter-Island company to run excursions from the other islands so that island folk may come over here for the Floral Parade and Ellis' Carnival celebration.

The company will issue round trip tickets by the steamers Mauna Kea and Kinau, to passengers from Hawaii, Maui and Kana who wish to attend the Ellis' Carnival and Floral Parade.

The Mauna Kea will arrive at Honolulu on regular time, Saturday, February 19th. Returning, will leave Honolulu on Wednesday, February 23d, at nine o'clock in the morning, instead of Tuesday, arriving at Hilo about six o'clock Thursday morning in time to catch the morning train to the volcano.

The Kinau will arrive at Honolulu on regular time, Sunday morning, February 20th. Returning, will leave Honolulu on Tuesday night, February 22d, at ten o'clock. Special excursion round trip tickets will be sold as follows:

Hilo to Honolulu and return, $16.50; Mahukona and Kawaihoa to Honolulu and return, $13.00; Maui ports to Honolulu and return, $7.50; Kana ports to Honolulu and return, $7.50.

The opening of the hotel in Hilo and the dedication of the Masonic Temple there on the 24th inst. should draw a crowd to Hilo, and the Mauna Kea will probably be well filled with passengers. The volcano, too, is active enough to draw even persons who have visited the place many times in the past.

The Other Half Wanted.

Mr. Galt, chairman of the finance committee of the Floral Parade, says that his superiors want him to hand in the second half of the money necessary for the expenses of the day very soon now. A few hundred people have given the first half. Replies to the letter of the committee should come in rapidly within the next twenty-four hours. As stated before, any amount will be acceptable and it requires only a few hundred more replies with pledges in moderate amounts to "fill the bill." The committee wants to present the "Honolulu United" will respond on an occasion like this and that the public generally approve of a shareholding day instead of a celebration paid for by a few heavy contributors.

Six Bands in Parade.

Six bands will supply music for the Floral Parade. Six bands would be a large number of musical organizations for almost any parade on the mainland. Those which are to participate in this parade are the Fifth Cavalry mounted band, to precede the squadron of cavalry from Schofield Barracks; the Hawaiian band, the Portuguese band, St. Louis College band, Industrial School band and the Columbia Park boys band, which, by special favor conferred upon

BIG COLLECTIONS

OF WATER RATES

Since June 30 last the department of public works has collected the sum of $130,000 in water rates and $41,000 in sewer rates. This, says Marston Campbell, is the largest collection in the history of the department, but he expects the collections for the present year to exceed those of last year by about $60,000.

Since last June the department has let sewer and water extension contracts to the extent of $28,000. During the next six months Mr. Campbell expects to extend the sewers in the Punchbowl districts, School street and Lanikai, Kamae and in the Palama district.
